

AWAS delivers final of four planned new A320 passenger aircraft to long-time customer VivaAerobus

Purchase and Leaseback transaction to assist successful, low cost carrier in Mexico with fleet transition and modernisation programme

Dublin, 20th June 2016

AWAS, announced today that it has delivered the final of four planned new A320 passenger aircraft to its customer, VivaAerobus, purchasing the aircraft the airline had previously ordered from the manufacturer and then placing it with them on a long term lease.

The delivery of this new A320s from a PLB deal agreed in 2015 is part of the on-going rollover of the VivaAerobus fleet into an all-A320 operator. The AWAS fleet at VivaAerobus, which includes a number of 737-300s being gradually phased out with AWAS' assistance, now grows to six IAE-powered A320s.

VivaAerobus operates intra-Mexico and international flights providing market leading low fares, quality and international standards.
